

Southeast Asia's Institutional Investor Awards 2015

‘Most Organised Investor Relations’ and ‘Strongest Adherence to Corporate Governance’

Alpha Southeast Asia, the region’s leading Institutional Investment Magazine publisher has conducted annual poll to find region’s top institutions. The poll is based on tallied votes among 520 investors, pension funds, hedge funds, equity and fixed income brokers and analysts with investment interests in the Southeast Asia region.

Sona Petroleum has scored favourably with global investors in the categories of ‘Most Organised Investor Relations; and Strongest Adherence to Corporate Governance’

The outcome of the poll has been extensively covered by local and regional business and financial press. This illustrate how the publication is fast becoming one of Southeast Asia's leading perceptions-based poll in financial management, adherence to corporate governance, integrated reporting/ corporate social responsibility and investor relations.
